

Online consultancy

We are prepared to answer any questions by email; however, based on the high volume of emails, it might take 1-2 days to receive a response. Please accept our thanks in advance for your understanding. It is not our main task to evaluate opinions issued by other specialists; however, if one is at issue, please kindly attach it to the question. In all cases, we give our own opinion and the suggested courses of action which can be chosen from, and we also help to understand previous decisions as well, if necessary.
